

Introducing the AW09 Collection from Radley London

Autumn Winter 2009 heralds a strong season for Radley, inspired by the exotic beauty of the Silk Road bursting with detail, colour and exceptional hand-crafted elements. Highlights include embossed leather with hand-painted lotus flowers, intricately pleated leather and elaborate hand-stitching, this playful attention to detail is intrinsic to every Radley collection.

Horse Guards

Key styles for this season include the 'Horse Guards' saddle style bag appearing in three new sizes; the 'Marylebhone' with the patent trim is a sophisticated take on a slouch bag; the 'Westbourne' is an incredibly versatile satchel set to be a favourite for girls who love to carry their life in their bag; the 'Haymarket' slouch carpet bag is a first for Radley and a notable addition to this collection; the 'Grosvenor' makes a welcome return in a new smaller size and in their new summer hues. Lastly, not forgetting the all time favourite 'Pocket bag', appearing in a new range of colours and a stand out new lotus flower embossed design

Brick Lane

Haymarket

With a true love for colour, Radley's rich seasonal palette includes bold shades of purple, raspberry, and indigo and re-appears across the prints and pattern that emerge through the collection on both the exterior and also interior linings of each bag. Leathers are luxurious and of the highest quality, with patent popping up on the trims of several bags. Key design touches of exterior pockets, charm style detachable leather tags, multi-way and cross-body straps all add to the overall appeal of this collection.

Knightsbridge

Cambridge Circus

Portobello

Adding cheer to our infamous British weather inspires Radley's bold and colourful printed umbrellas with skilful laser cut features and patterned handles. Eco friendly 'must haves' are the fold away totes made from recycled bottles coming in a selection of Radley colours and prints.

With an enviable range of eclectic styles and products from Radley you couldn't wish for more this season.
